ADDRESS

TO DEMOCRATS OF THE STATE.

Committee of Sound Money Democrats Presents a Forceable Argument.

The Political Issue of the Day Must Be Met Fairly and Squarely.

DANGERS OF FREE SILVER.

The following address to the Democrats of Kentucky has been issued by the committee appointed at the meeting of sound-money Democrats held at Louisville Wednesday.

Louisville, Ky., April 30, 1896.—To the Democrats of Kentucky: The time for earnest and active work is again upon us. Momentous questions which directly concern every family in the land are before us. The future of our party and welfare of our country demand our wisest action. We have been divided upon one issue of supreme importance, which we should not and can not avoid or postpone.

"Our civil war left us with an unsatisfactory monetary system. To meet the expenses of the war our Government issued legal tender paper money, which fell below par and drove both gold and silver out of circulation.

"With the evil effects of a depreciated currency then before their eyes, and realizing the necessity for a sound and stable currency, Congress prepared for the resumption of specie payment.

"The first step in that direction was the act of 1873, which formally recognized the fact that gold had been our standard of value and the basis of our monetary system since 1834, and, therefore, declared the gold dollar to be the unit of value.

"Then followed the act of 1875, which fixed January 1, 1879, as the day for the resumption of specie payment. In the meantime the personal interest of the silver miners and the exigencies of party strife dragged the money question into politics, where it has remained. The country now demands a settlement. It has suffered enough and now proposes to bring the question to a final issue.

"What will be the position of Kentucky Democrats in this struggle? For or against sound money? For or against free silver and a depreciated currency? For or against the teachings of Jefferson, Jackson, Webster, Calhoun, Benton, Tilden and Cleveland? For against every Democratic Administration from the organization of the party? For or against Carlisle? More than all, for or against the honor of the nation and the prosperity of the people?

"Be not deceived by the delusive claim of the advocates of free silver that they are striving for bimetallism. We do not impugn their motives, but if they accomplish their avowed purpose, and secure free and unlimited coinage of silver at the present ratio, or any ratio materially less than the commercial ratio between the two metals, they will not accomplish bimetallism but silver monometallism.

"The silver dollar is to-day worth as much as the gold dollar, because it is the declared policy of the Government to preserve the parity of the coins of the two metals. The credit, therefore, of the Government, in short its gold endorsement upon each dollar, makes the two of equal purchasing power.

"The immediate effect of a free-silver act would be to force this Government to abandon its present policy of preserving the parity between the two metals. This done the coined metals of the country would at once assume their bullion value and no more, and gold as the undervalued money would disappear.

"The Democrats who demand the maintenance of the existing standard of value are opposed to contracting the currency by the expulsion of gold from circulation. Only those are practical bimetallists who desire the concurrent circulation of both gold and silver coins of equal purchasing power. They are guided by the history of their own country, by the laws of trade, and by the unbroken experience of the world. They challenge the advocates of free silver to answer the following propositions:

"First—That there is not a free-coining country in the world today, that is not on a silver basis.

"Second—That there is not a gold-standard country in the world today, that does not use silver as money along with gold.

"Third—That there is not a silver-standard country in the world today, that uses any gold as money along with silver.

"Fourth—That there is not a silver-standard country in the world today, that has more than one-third as much money in circulation per capita as the United States has, and

"Fifth—That there is not a silver-standard country in the world today, where the laboring man receives fair pay for his day's work.

The free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ration of 16 to 1, or at any ratio materially below the common Democrats of Kentucky. It should not be confused with any other matter. Another question, personal or political, State or national, should enter into and confuse the consideration of this subject.

"The great questions are, shall the existing standard of value be maintained. Shall the free and unlimited coinage of silver be endorsed or condemned? Shall our country be honored or dishonored? Shall it maintain its commanding station in the family of nations? or shall it sink to the level of Mexico and China?

"These are the questions fellow-citizens, which you are called upon to consider and pass upon. There can be but one answer: Maintain the existing standard of value and condemn the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

"Let the Democrats of Kentucky make their declarations in plain and unequivocal language. If our State is to be made the battle ground by the free-silver leaders of Missouri, Colorado and Nevada, let us go forth to make and win the fight in the solemn conviction that we will in this way, and in this way only, reunite and rehabilitate our party and put it in line with the best interests of our common country.

THIEF CAUGHT.

FOUND FLAT ON A SILL
Was A Deserter From Sells
Brothers & Porepaugh's Circus.

Sunday morning about 2 o'clock a negro was seen in the office of the Monarch Milling company and the officers being notified searched the building and the thief was finally found in engine room on a flat piece of timber near the roof, feigning to be asleep. He gave his name as John Williams and said he had deserted the circus at Morehead and was making his way back to his home in Louisville and that he had gone into the engine room to take a nap, that he had not, nor did he intend to molest anything. The story did not fit the discoverers. He had broken into the cash drawer, had been trying to open the safe and when found had in his possession a suit of Mr. C. H. Petry's clothes. This is not the first time he had been in trouble, he said, but his former arrests were for minor offences. He is now in jail here and there is little doubt that he will make his home in Frankfort for a while.

A New Enterprise.

I. N. Phipps, of this city, is actively engaged in an effort to get a branch plant of the great Jesse G. Keys & Son's stave and heading manufacturing concern (headquarters New York City) located in Mt. Sterling, and has succeeded to the extent of getting them to agree to locate here, provided the city council will donate a site of five acres of ground for mills, dry houses, sheds, etc., and ground to rove to the city when the company comes to operate, which, however, they will not do until all the timber shall have been exhausted, and as it is the purpose of this company to purchase a larger lumber yard, either in Monroe or Rowan county, and in addition to purchase by the word all the oak trees can have shipped in from Carter, Rowan, Bath and Menard counties. It will be several years before they would have to close out for lack of timber.

This concern is one of the oldest in the United States, having begun business in 1811, and never once in all the 85 years of its existence known such a thing as financial embarrassment, and it could be secured to Mt. Sterling it would be one of the biggest things for the merchants and business men of the city that has ever fallen to their good fortune, as they employ from forty to fifty men constantly, and pay out for wages alone $25,000 to $35,000 a year. We sincerely hope our city council will meet their proposition.

Will Howard Seriously Wounded

Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock the owner of a pistol shot aroused the citizens on Tenny Hill and upon investigation it was learned that Simon Brakes had shot and seriously wounded Will (Sweet) Howard, both negroes. In a short time after the shooting the police had Howard as their prisoner and landed him in jail. Dr. W. R. Thompson was called and found the wounded man seriously hurt. The ball entered the lip ranging upward and lodging in a vital place near the ear.

Miss Annie Ragin, of Lexington, was married on fast Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John T. Prewitt to Mayor D. J. Burchett, of Louisa, Ky., Elder E. L. Powell officiating. They will sail for Europe where they will remain about one year.

Died, Miss Carry Buford Huffaker daughter of H. C. Huffaker, Monday, at the home of her father, this city, of consumption, aged 10 years. Funeral at residence this afternoon at three o'clock, services by Elder W. T. Tibbs.

The sardine-canning season in eastern Maine began Wednesday. It is naturally related that but few sardines will be put up until the late spring, as the herring are not running well yet. When herring grow too big for sardines they are just big enough for brook trout. But perhaps the name matters little, for the fish are toothsome under any name.

The Lancaster Record says that Capt. F. J. White, who began typesetting in 1830, and in his prime could easily set 18,000 a day, still stinks three galley a day of brevier, which is more than the average man sets. The type that this fine old man has set could not be pulled by a locomotive. May he live to set millions more.

Forty-five thousand feet of lumber came to the Langstaff-Orme mills Saturday in one place, says the Paducah News. This big stack of planking was in the shape of a saw long, which was brought out of Cumberland river from Dover, Tennessee, to be cut up into shingles and joists and that sort of thing. In length, the huge stick of timber measured seventy feet. Its diameter was forty-six inches.

Senator Walcott has written a letter to the chairman of the Republican State Committee of Colorado, in which he says that if the Republican State Convention of Colorado sends delegates to the St. Louis convention they should be bound by the action of the National Convention on the currency question, and intimates his purpose, unlike Senator Teller, of remaining with the Republican organization.

Two Mormon missionaries, who are musicians and play as well as preach, returned to San Francisco last week from Samoa, where they have been laboring during the last eighteen months and, they say, with remarkable success. They have established a church at Apia and allege that the Samoans are easy converts. One of the missionaries plays a guitar and a harmonica at the same time, and the other alternates with a flute and a fiddle. Their manner of work was to attract and interest the natives by their playing and then endeavor to convert them by their preaching.

Our Beechwood correspondent is authority for the statement that there is now in this country a child in which, although one year old at the time, came all the way from China unaccompanied by either parents or friends, says the Shelye Sentinel. The name of the child is Adelaide Bossie, and she is living with her aunt, Mrs. Bryant, near Simpsonville. The parents of the little one were missionaries, and when her mother died her father determined to send the little girl to the United States to be reared by his relatives. Acting upon this idea he made arrangements with an express company and the result was that the child, after weeks of travel by water and rail, arrived at Simpsonville sound and healthy. The child is now about two years old.

How to Feed Orchards.

A system of manuring for cultivating orchards, based upon the limited data at our disposal, may be outlined as follows: To provide vegetable matter and to improve the physical quality of poor soils, apply yard manure once in four years, in fall or winter, at the rate of five to ten tons per acre. To aid in the decomposition of vegetable matter and to insure a sufficient supply of lime as plant food, apply 25 bushels per acre once in five years. To provide additional and abundance of all forms of the available plant food at the time of need for development of the tree and fruit, apply annually chemical fertilizers in the following proportions: Nitrate of soda 100 lbs., S. C. rock superphosphate 100 lbs., ground bone 200 lbs., muriate of potash 200 lbs. The amount to be applied depends on the character of the soil, the kind of fruit, and the age and vigor of the trees; these given perhaps mark the minimum. By the introduction of crimson clover, we have a plant admirably adapted to cheaply supply nitrogenous vegetable matter for orchards, and its growth is to be recommended wherever the plant can be successfully grown, instead of the use of hay or manure. —Director Voorhees of the N. J. Experiment Station, to the Massachusetts Horticultural Society.

A full Major in a gospel army which is conducting a campaign in San Francisco was drummed out of the ranks publicly one night last week for the serious offense of trying to steal the army. The stated charge was "conduct unbecoming a soldier of the cross." The army is an unincorporated organization of considerable size, maintaining several barracks and forts in San Francisco. The Major in question had the instincts of a dictator, and painted the General of the army by his insubordination and ambition. Finally the Major was found out in a plot to have the army incorporated, with himself and four men of his clique as incorporators. The General and his chief of staff were to be frozen out. Then the General decided that for his own safety, as well as for the good of the army, the Major must be banished.

A seaman on H. M. S. Edinburgh recently had a remarkable escape. He was at work on a ladder on the bow of the vessel as she was going into Portsmouth harbor, steaming at ten knots an hour, when the ladder broke and he was thrown into the water directly under the keel. He came up again in the wake of the ship, two ship's lengths astern, uninjured, having escaped the suction of the vessel and contact with the propellers.

European Crop Situation.

The generally satisfactory of farming operations in England, writes our London special correspondent, also prevails on the European continent, from part of which come complaints. The outlook, which was so bad in Spain, has been latterly much altered, rain having fallen in most parts, and the result is that fairly good crops are now reported as most probable; at one time there seemed to be a great likelihood of everything being lost. In Asia Minor the barley harvest is just about beginning, and an average yield is expected. During May the cutting of wheat will commence, and prospects for this grain are also considered to be good. The reports from India issued officially show that the outcome is likely to be less than last year, possibly to the extent of 20 per cent, so that during the current year India may not be expected to be an extensive shipper of wheat.

The general price of British wheat is now lower than it has been for at least three months, and there appears little likelihood of an advance occurring in the cargo markets.

The quantities on offer are not particularly heavy, but there is nothing lively in the trade;

California wheat is worth from 73c per bushel. Mixed American corn remains unchanged at 46c cents for June or July delivery.

Barley shows a slightly hardening tendency, American oats 37 cents.

During the 31 weeks of the present

cereal season the imports of wheat into the U. K. have been about 2½ millions of bushels less than in the corresponding period of last year, but flour has shown a considerable increase, and corn an enormous growth (not less than 22,000,000 of bushels); it is a very surprising fact that values have not fallen more, as the market is rather larger than the demand, than there have been also a considerable drop in the quantities of barley and oats.

Prices of wheat in the Paris market are 95c cents, Antwerp 79½ cents, Berlin $1.03 and at Amsterdam 72 cents. Alfalfa seed in the Paris market ranges from $3.75 to $4 per bushel for ordinary qualities, and Providence seed ranges as high as $1.50.

Having been very successful in riding the orchards and vineyards of the State of several insect pests by putting one destructive insect against another, California is now trying the same principle in her rivers. Some of the rivers are almost alive with carp, which are a serious nuisance because of their destructiveness to other fish. The State Fish Commissioners have procured a large number of black bass, both the small-mouthed and large-mouthed varieties, and turned them loose in the carp-infested rivers. Bass are voracious feeders and game fighters, and it is expected they will destroy great numbers of the carp fry and eventually clean out the carp. The bass are, of course, very desirable game fish to have in the rivers, while the carp are not.

California college girls seem to be going strongly for athletics. The sale of $651 of a Poland-China sow was reported a few weeks ago. This price has been exceeded by the $880 paid for a sow of the same breed sold in Lawrence county, Ill., recently. This does not look as though farmers and breeders are discouraged. In spite of the present low prices of pork, due to cheap corn, the swine industry compares favorable with other branches of agriculture, and, one year with another, hogs are about as profitable as anything the average farmer can raise.—American Agriculturist.

Germany pays a bounty of about 4¢ per pound on all domestic sugar exported, and is likely to increase it to over 6¢ per pound. This will enable German sugars to be laid down in American markets at prices 4 to 6¢ less than sugar from other countries. In other words, Germany means to capture our markets and crush out the American sugar industry. Congress ought to meet the exigency by imposing an additional duty equal to Germany's export bounty. It is because the American sugar industry is so full of promise that Germany is so anxious to knock it out!

The most expensive factor in farming is hired labor. Wages of farm help are maintained at almost as high a level as in boom times. Therefore the great point in economical farming is to get along with as little hired help as possible. With care in planning the season's campaign, and due judgment in laying out the work from day to day, one who uses the latest and best methods and improved labor-saving machinery can do a lot of farming with an astoundingly small amount of help. Here is one of the easiest ways for the average farmer to both save money and make money.

The steady advance in the price of wheat during the past few months has given a renewed impetus to wheat farming on the Pacific coast this season, and this branch, which has been languishing for several years, has stiffened up of late and the output of grain on the coast promises to be larger this year than for some years past. There has been a somewhat increased acreage in California, while a very material increase is noted in the wheat sections of Oregon, Washington and other coast states. The season so far has been very propitious over the larger portions of the Pacific coast. While in some of the southern California counties there has been a shortage in the railroad, over the larger part of the state, and especially in the wheat counties, there has been plenty of rain to insure good crops. But little danger is now to be apprehended from frost, although in some parts late winds may yet do damage. These causes, however, are usually local and limited in their area.

WHOM WILL THEY MARRY?

Pennsylvania Girls Who Have Taken a Solemn Vow "Never to Marry Men."

Ten young ladies belonging to the best families of the town of Baden, Beaver county, about twenty miles from Pittsburgh, have organized what they call the "Trilly Club," have vowed "never to marry men, and won't even go near the horrid things."

The cause of this strange action on the part of the ten girls is a grievance they have nursed. It seems that the boys of the town expected the girls to make some use of their leap year privileges. The girls, on the contrary, wanted the boys to be as attentive as ever. The upshot was that indulgent meetings were held, and ten of the more determined young ladies formed the Trilly Club, and took a solemn oath never to wed.

Baden is far enough from this city to depend on its own ability for entertainment. While the weaker of the girls go as usual, the ten members of the club have remained out of young men's society. Instead, they hold meetings at their own homes. These meetings a member of the club describes as revels. At one meeting they all dressed in their brother's clothing. At another they dressed as ballet girls. One of the female sicks says the ballet was "the bullest show she ever saw." The club is about to purchase bloomers and wheels, and enjoy life without masculine aid.

Spray Now to Prevent Ripe Rot.

The most serious fungus, which has made its appearance only the last four or five years, is the ripe rot of the grape. It appears with the first rains in fall, but I have no doubt that its spores remain dormant the whole year, and are only called into life by the first showers. It spreads rapidly, and damages especially the red wine grapes, as it effects the color and tannin. I believe that timely spraying with bordeaux mixture will prove a preventive against this as against the black and bitter rot in the east, which we do not know here. At least it should be tried, and as it is both cheap and expeditious, no one ought to neglect it. The formula for the mixture has been given so often that I need not repeat it here, and the whole apparatus, a hand pump with a short hose and Vermorel nozzle, together, with the ingredients to spray five acres, which a man can easily do in a day, need not cost over $10, labor and all included. Moreover, it acts as a partial fertilizer, and keeps the foliage fresh and green. But the sooner it is done the easier and more complete will be the application.—George Husmann, Napa county, Calif.

Seeing One Own Death's Head.

A living skull has been photographed by means of the new rays discovered by the German professor. An editor, eager to observe the process, offered to have his skull taken, but is said to have been shocked at the result that he has not slept since he saw his own "death's head."

HE IS 139 YEARS OLD.

He Lived 50 Years in Siberia. Too And Has Just Ended a Pilgrimage on Foot.

The St. Petersburg Gazette says Russia has the oldest man on earth. Its Moscow correspondent tells of him thus:

"There appeared this week in the office of the police surgeon an aged man who wished to have his injured hand bandaged. The surgeon bound up the wound and then began talking with the patient. He learned eventually, from documentary evidence, that the man was born in 1757, during the reign of Empress Elizabeth, and therefore is 139 years old."

The old man, whose name is Kusmin, said he was a native of Moscow, and from his twentieth to his eighty-sixth year had been a coachman. In his eighty-sixth year, however, he had upset his master, a Count, and the Count's brother had hurt both seriously and had been sent to Siberia, where he had lived until 1893. In that year he decided to return home and he arrived in Moscow in 1894. He at once started for Kiev on a pilgrimage, from which he had just come back. He was much grieved to find that all the friends of his youth were dead.

"Kusmin's eyesight is undimmed his hearing is good, and he is a splinter-walker, as his pilgrimages have shown. Up to his 134th year he has never tasted whiskey, but now he allows himself an occasional drink."

New Wedding Stationery.

"Several changes in the style and shape of stationery pertaining to wedding are noticeable this season," writes Edward Clayton Sibley in May Ladies' Home Journal. "A rather large, almost square, note with an embossed envelope takes the place of last year's octavo size, for which a square envelope was required. The principle reason for this reversal of sizes is that the square note accommodates better the frequently long lines of names and dates, while, by engraving the lines slightly closer to each other, a handsome marginal effect is produced, one that would be entirely lost upon the narrower note. The new style of engraving is plain script without flourishes, small enough to enable all the names to be spelled out in full."

"Then the oblong envelope is not so slender as to be classed commercial, and it admits of a lettering effected by women of society. The quality of paper remains the same as formerly and is the white parchment or kid finish, which under the pressure of the printing rollers is rendered comparatively smooth. The square or fancy flap of the envelope has been entirely superseded by the plain, modest pointed one."

Important To Readers.

The name of the old Cincinnati Weekly Gazette—established in the last century—has been changed to The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, and it will hereafter be published on Tuesday morning at an hour so early as to enable it to reach subscribers at a distance of 300 miles on the day of publication. The Weekly Commercial Gazette, like the daily, is the leading family newspaper of the West, and has been recently improved greatly. The weekly is now but 50 cents a year.

Solution of the Problem.

Workingman, why are you out of work, or why are your wages so low? Why are your children half-starved in the midst of plenty, or why is it that forty per cent of your class were more or less dependent on the hand of charity during the past winter? The goldite pres say that those things are due to over-production of all the necessities of life. Why then in the midst of such over-production are you not sick and well fed? These golden organs do not tell the truth. There has been no over-production. On the contrary, what sits the country is under-consumption. You have no money to buy with and therefore cannot consume. The same is true of the farmer. He has an abundance of crops, but he has no money. Consequently he has no surplusage and cannot buy the products of his own labor. If bimetallism is restored it will restore prices. All admit this. This will give the farmers a surplusage and set the mills and factories to work so that you will be able to find work again. The question, therefore, arises at the coming election, how will you vote? Will you be blinded by party ties and party prejudices which are worn out, or will you arise to new issues and vote for bimetallism, irrespective of party? This is the only solution of the problem. Study it well. It is vital to your interest as well as it is to those of all producing classes.—Western Rural.

Curious Disease.

Calvin Whitlow, of Allen county, has been afflicted with a strange disease for twenty years. It has baffled the efforts of the most skilled physicians. The Scottville Courier gives the account of the case: "Mr. Asa Mitchell says when he came to Allen county, twenty years ago, he was at Mr. Whitlow's house and that at that time Mr. Whitlow was lying flat on his back with his hands crossed on his breast, but could not move his hands, and could scarcely work his fingers. He could see, talk, laugh, eat, drink, and did not seem to suffer any pain. The muscles of his arms continued to draw until his arms were drawn down by his side and his hands flat on the bed, and then he could not even move his fingers. About this time sight failed, and since then he has been totally blind, but his hearing was not much impaired. A little later his jaws became set, and his front teeth had to be knocked out so he could be fed with a spoon. He can drink soup or swallow chewed vegetables, and his stomach seems to be in a very healthy condition. All of his body except his head, lungs, stomach and heart seems to be dead. A redhot iron touched to any part of his body would not cause a muscle quiver. His fingers and toes have crumbled off and gone, but still lives and talks. This is a most remarkable case. Can someone name the disease?"

The Whitefield Yeoman has found a prophet in its own country: "Alex. Hall, of East Cairo, says we are sure have to rise in May that will eclipse the late one. He says he bases his prophecy on the actions of the fish during the recent overflow. They went into the lowlands in the river bottom as far as they could possibly get, and would not stop for any ordinary obstruction in going from one pool to another, some of them crossing stretches and drift and dry land to actually surprising. Alex says this is a sign that never fails."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce

JUDGE WM. M. BECKER, of Clark County, as a candidate for Congress in the District, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention. An address from the District containing facts explicable by views on all public questions and the personal character of the Judge, will be glad of their support on personal grounds or from the fact they agree with him on other points. He has been a strong advocate in favoring by legislation or suppression of his views the interests of the people supporting him for nomination or election.

Attention, Democrats.

A mass meeting of the Democrats of Montgomery county will be held at the Court House in Mt. Sterling on Saturday, May 30, 1896, at 2 o'clock p.m., sun time, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the State Convention called to meet at Lexington on June 3, 1896.

H. R. FRENCH,
Chairman.

McKinley is sweeping everything before him for the Republican nomination for President. It has become almost a certainty that he will receive the endorsement of his party at St. Louis next month. He has so far distanced all competitors that they are apparently no longer in the race.

Beginning with May 8th, the paper now known as the Bath County Banner and edited by Thos. J. Young at Orlingville, will become Democratic politically, and will be issued under the name of the Bath County Democrat and will be edited by S. S. Cassity, former editor of the Montgomery County Times. Sam can't stand Republican association long at a time, hence the death of the Banner and birth of the Democrat.

What Think Ye?

A special from Frankfort to the daily press says that business of all kinds was suspended at Frankfort on the appearance of Sells Brothers' & Farquhar's circus, and that the dignified Court of Appeals adjourned and took in the circus. Well! Well!

Souther Sherman says that McKinley is orthodox on the money question. What's Sherman's idea of orthodoxy, anyway? He does not agree with Mr. Carlisle and has been known to agree with Mr. Farquhar and has been known not to agree with Mr. Sherman. What's the matter with Mr. McKinley speaking his own mind?—Louisville Times.

The silverites would ask whose mind is Mr. Carlisle speaking now.

The Louisville Times is rather cubic in expressing its longing for the return of our John G. Carlisle. Instead of saying Mr. Carlisle is the Rockerick Dhu of American politics, Kentucky Democrats would like to hear a blast from his bugle-horn about this time. He has earned a vacation, and a few days spent by him in the home vineyard would be a blessing to the party.

Why doesn't the Times say come over and help us. We need you now, and need you bad.

Judge Howard R. French is being urged by his friends for district delegate to the Chicago Convention. There are many good men in the Tenth District, but there is not a better one or true Democrat than Judge French. He is a Democrat who will always keep his eyes open to what is for the best interest of his party, and is now and has ever been willing to sink private interests and personal inclinations in which looks to the general welfare of the party. We hope to see Judge French sent as delegate to the National Convention; and of one thing we are assured, the Democrats of the Tenth District can find no man who will more creditably represent them.

Democratic Hand-book.

The new Democratic hand-book is now ready for distribution. Much thought and labor has been expended in its compilation, and it is offered to Democrats with the assurance that it contains absolutely authentic information, not published elsewhere, of the party organization in every Precinct, County and political division of the State.

In addition, to complete and accurate lists of State and County Executive Committees and the names of their officers, it contains lists of the candidates composing each Legislative, Senatorial, Circuit Court, Appellate, Railroad Commissioner, and Congressional District, and the name and address of the Chairman of each Committee. It also contains the Rules of the State Central Committee adopted under the authority of the last State Convention. Platform of the Party, State and National, tables showing the vote of the State by Counties and Districts, and statistics of interest and value to every Democrat and Citizen. One of its features is the correct name and address of every county officer in the State, and a court calendar revised, and brought down to the date of adjournment of the last Legislature.

It is an independent record for all Democratic office-holders, those who are seeking, or expect to seek office, and of great interest to all who have held office in the Commonwealth. In fact, it constitutes a record of permanent value to the party, and will enable those having its interests and welfare at heart to organize more efficiently in the future than they have ever been able to do in the past.

To cover the cost of compiling the matter and printing the book, the price of 50 cents has been placed upon it, and it is hoped that every Democrat in the State will be willing to incur such a small expenditure toward a record of such value to the party.

Orders will receive prompt attention.

Address R. H. ISURAM, Secy.
Room 715 Columbia Building.

County Convention.

Saturday, May 30, 2 p.m., sun time, is the date for the selection of delegates to the State Convention which meets at Lexington, June 3. It will be well for our friends throughout the county to bear in mind a few things if they desire to bear a hand in selecting delegates to the State Convention.

The county meeting is a mass convention held at the Court House.

Saturday, May 30, at 2 p.m., sun time, is the date and hour (Remember the Court House clock is set to standard time.)

Montgomery county is entitled to eight votes in the convention, and we should see to it that true Democrats are sent to represent us.

Judge Howard R. French has been suggested for district delegate to the National Convention at Chicago, July 7. The district has no better man or truer Democrat within its borders. We do not want to fail to give Judge French a hearty endorsement from his home county.

A personal letter to Mr. W. P. Dickey, of this family, from the family of Dr. Robt. Hinser, who was reported by us in last our issue (through a mistaken correspondent) as being dead, brings the glad news that the Doctor is still living, with possible prospects of recovery, though his condition is still critical. The letter says his attack began about one month ago, since which time he has been prostrated, and at several times quite near the verge of the river, his pulse at intervals standing at 25 to 35 and seldom to register over 40. It will be joyous intelligence to the many friends and admirers of Dr. Hinser in this community, where he lived and labored so earnestly, to know that there is even possible hope of his restoration, and the prayers of many Christians here, irrespective of church lines, will go up in his behalf.

At a stockholders meeting of the Exchange Bank of Kentucky, the following persons were elected directors: W. S. Lloyd, C. H. Petry, T. H. Grubbs, A. B. White and H. R. Prentiss.

Judge W. D. Minnick.

Judge W. D. Minnick, of Morehead, died in this city on last Friday morning at 2 o'clock from blood poison. He had been here under treatment by Dr. J. B. Taubel just one week.

Judge Minnick was about 40 years old and was a native of Virginia. At one time he was police judge of Morehead, and at the time of his death was conducting a grocery business. He was a man of sterling worth, a good citizen, and had many fast friends. About four weeks ago Flinley Toliver went into Judge Minnick's store, under the influence of whisky, and was very boisterous, and Judge Minnick took him by the arm and led him out to the pavement, when Toliver turned and shot him, the ball striking the arm and ranging up to the elbow. The wound was painful, but was not considered dangerous until several weeks later when it began to give him great pain. Blood poison set up and Dr. Talbot was summoned, but not until the disease had so progressed that it was beyond the control of medical skill. When Dr. Talbot first saw him he was unconscious. Judge Minnick was brought here a week before his death and received every needed attention. He was a Knight Templar and was cared for by that order here. His funeral was presided over by Elder E. G. Button, assisted by Elder H. D. Clark, of this city, and his remains were interred in Machpelah Cemetery with Knight Templar honors. Judge Minnick leaves a wife who has the sympathy of the many friends she made while here at the bedside of her husband.

ASYLUM MONTGOMERY COMMANDERY, NO. 5, K. T., "May 2, 1896.

The Great Captain of our salvation has promoted to a higher sphere of service our frater, Sir W. D. Minnick, whose earthly warfare ended on May 1, 1896, at two o'clock a.m., and whom we have just followed to the "bivouac of the dead."

The lawless hand which inflicted his mortal wound struck down a good citizen, an honest, industrious and courageous man, an earnest and faithful Mason and valiant Knight.

As his brethren in "the bonds of brotherly love and friendship," we resolve to imitate his virtues, to cherish the memory of his manly character and fraternal spirit, and to keep watch and ward over the beloved wife who survives him. To her we tender our loving sympathy.

HENRY JONES,
JAS. A. SHIRLEY, Com.
H. R. FRENCH,

Grand Excursion to Louisville.

On April 1st the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, through the completion of the Shelyville cut-off, became a terminal line at Louisville. Double daily vestibule trains are run in each direction with through service between Washington and Louisville via Lexington. Trains are limited vestibule throughout, and the trains at night are lighted by electricity. Only two stops, viz., Frankfort and Shelyville, are made between Lexington and Louisville.

It is for the purpose of introducing this new independent short line that the Chesapeake & Ohio announces a popular priced excursion to Louisville, Friday, May 15th, tickets being good on limited express leaving Mt. Sterling at 7:05 a.m., reaching Louisville at 11 a.m. Tickets will be good returning on train leaving Louisville at 5:30 p.m., May 15th, 8:30 a.m., May 16th. Stops will be made in each direction at Thompson, Hedges and L. & E. Junctions. These three stations are the only ones outside of Mt. Sterling from which excursion rates will apply on May 15th. This is a guarantee against crowded trains.

It is an unusual thing for a railroad company to make popular priced excursions by vestibule limited trains, but in this case it is done for the purpose of giving the patrons a taste of the superior regular train service.

The spring races will be going on in Louisville, and there will also be a National League game of base ball between the Louisville and Philadelphia.

Speed of Our Battle Ships.

The good half knot by which Massachusetts has beaten the other states is another proof of the excellent speed we may expect from this class, although their contracts guarantee only 15 knots. And there is good reason to believe from some preliminary work of the Oregon that she will be quite worthy in speed of her Atlantic coast mates, while the Indians steam in regular service to give the impression that she could repeat the 15-61 knots of her trial report.

Speed is not the prime factor in these three coast-line battleships; for, since their purpose is to fight rather than to run, the emphasis with them has been laid upon armor and armament, rather than upon speed and coal endurance. Yet neither of these latter features has been neglected, and the trial runs of the Massachusetts and her mate show that they have all the speed we could ask. Of course, with battery power and protection at the maximum, as in their case, all the additional speed they can give is valuable, since they are expected to cruise wherever they may be needed, though primarily coast-line ships.

In the case of the Iowa, 16 knots is the guarantee, as she is of a little different type, the seagoing battle ship. She has considerably greater engine power, with about 1,000 tons of additional displacement, and nobody will be surprised to find her beating 17 knots on her trial. Her battery is not as heavy as that of the Massachusetts, as she carries four 12-inch guns where the latter has four 13-inch, and six 4-inch guns where the latter has four 6-inch. The water-line belt, too, is 14 inches thick, against the 18 inches of the Massachusetts. But she has a higher sustained speed and a greater steaming radius, and she has also a greater length of belt armor and her heavy guns are carried higher.

The question now arises whether the six new ships of the line should not be well up to the standard of the Massachusetts in speed. The Kearsarge and Kentucky are classed as "seagoing, coast-line battle ships" on Chief Constructor Tichenor's list, as if until the Iowa and Indiana classes. Yet we find that while the indicated horse power of the Iowa is designed to be 11,000, that of the Kearsarge and her mate is only 10,000. It is true that the horse power of the Indiana class was fixed for 9,000, but they are of 1,237 tons less displacement than the Kearsarge. Besides, the Indiana actually developed 9,738 horse power, and the official account of Saturdays trial gives the Massachusetts over 10,000. Perhaps the Kearsarge and her mate will, in like manner, surpass the horse power for which they have been designed. At all events it would be worth while to keep up in the four newest vessels the speed which the Indiana class has reached. It has thus far been said that 15 knots only would be exacted of them. It may be well to remember, however, that the premium system for extra speed has now been abandoned, no extra outlays by the contractors to secure such speed.

For vessels designated to operate in the same squadron, uniformity in the various classes is now much prized. If we could feel that our nine first-class battle ships could all be relied upon for trials speeds of from 15.5 to 16 knots at the lowest, the result would be gratifying, not only in the practice exercises of as many of them as might be contained in the same fleet, but in their operations in actual campaigning against an enemy. The results of the trials of the Indiana and the Massachusetts are not only satisfactory in themselves, but also shed light on the problem of what horse power must be given to their successors in order to achieve about the same speed.—New York Sun.

Shortest Route to Louisville.

The distance from Lexington to Louisville has been greatly shortened by the Shelyville "cut-off," just completed. C. & O. trains leaving Mt. Sterling at 7:05 a.m. and 4:50 p.m. daily, reach Louisville at 11 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. (2 hours and 45 minutes). The C. & O. now has the shortest line between Mt. Sterling and Louisville, the only line with double daily limited vestibule train service. Frankfort and Shelyville are the only points at which these trains stop.

The spring races will be going on

R. C. Robinson bought of J. W. Morris 38 fat hoggs at 3 cents, and of J. H. Henry 70 hogs at 3 cents. Average about 200 pounds.

Mrs. George Haydon, who died last Thursday at her daughter's, Mrs. John Sumpter, in Clark county, was buried at the old family grave-yard on the farm of John Blount on last Friday afternoon. The deceased was seventy-five years old, and had been a resident of this neighborhood for a number of years.

On last Sunday night chicken thieves visited the hen house of Mrs. Clayton Howell and carried away four or five setting hens from their nests. They also took the eggs that were nearly ready to hatch. The chickens were all finely bred Game. This county could afford to invest $100 for two good bloodhounds to trace down thieves.

We have had several showers of rain the past week which has caused vegetation to put forth rapidly.

The peaches are all killed along the water courses and low lands, but on high lands there will be an average crop.

Rev. Everett Gill and J. H. Oldham, of Mt. Sterling, were out here one day last week, working up an interest in the Macedonia Church.

There has been forest fires raging in this neighborhood the past week which have done a great deal of damage to timber and fencing. Jas. Westbooks lost six hundred panels of fence.

The lightning struck Mrs. Tiny Stevenson's dwelling house about noon last Wednesday and tore off one gable end and tipped over every chair in the house. Charlie Anderson, who has the house rented this year, fortunately was not at home.

The telephone line we spoke of in our last entries, running from this place to Clay City, has failed to materialize. About one-half of the stock changed hands, and now it seems that the matter is undecided. But the line will be built, all the same, and the next best thing will be to build a railroad from Mt. Sterling to Clay City.

Mrs. Kate Douglass, of this place, invited your correspondent to look through her millinery shop which she has just opened. We found everything as neat as could be. She has a nice line of ladies' hats, the prettiest we have ever seen, and the styles are up to date. The prices are in accord with the times.

Wilson.

Mr. J. D. Wilson, one of our most prominent citizens, died at his home in this city Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from heart failure.

Mr. Wilson was born in this country July 28, 1826, and was married to Miss Mattie Forman, of Bourbon county, January, 1864, who died July 27, 1891. To them were born six children. The youngest son, James, died at the age of seven years, and five, William W., Charles T., Miss Rebecca, John G. and Mrs. L. H. Coleman survived him. August 18, 1851, he was made an Odd Fellow, and was an active worker until disease prevented. For 35 years he was treasurer of the lodge and for 15 years was president of the Cemetery Board. Many years ago he was trustee and later president of the First National Bank, and from time to time on several terms from the Third ward. He was educated with the view of entering the law, but abandoned the idea for the more independent life of a farmer, which business in connection with the meat and grocery business he conducted to the time of his death, after having been in business here for more than thirty years. As a citizen he was a true, honest, tender and loving. We have known him for more than twenty years and never in a word of time have we heard a word of censure.

Mr. A. B. White in speaking of him today said: "I want to say for me a more honest and upright man never lived. I have been doing business for him for twenty-five or thirty years, and I know he was strictly correct and a just man." His funeral will be preached this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Methodist church by Elder H. D. Clark, assisted by Rev. C. J. Nugent, and he will be buried in Machpelah cemetery by the Odd Fellows. Long will the memory of this just man live in the minds and hearts of our people.

Foggs brothers and Will Scobee shipped last week sixty-eight 1250 pound cattle to Baltimore. These cattle were fed in the barn last winter and made a wonderful gain in weight. They were sold in Baltimore at about $3.75.

Mrs. Lucy Phelps, widow of Wm. Phelps, died yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital, Ky., and will be buried in Machpelah cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She was step-mother of Wm. T. Phelps, of this county.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Frank Agau 2:05² weighs 300 pounds.

Bob Stewart will not campaign at a stable of trotters this year.

Nancy Hawks 2:04 has been bred to Blingue, two-year-old record 2:10².

Harrietta 2:05 It is reported will be prepared for racing the coming season.

As Arion is on the sick list all the stallions at J. M. Calvert's farm will be bred to Blingue.

S. T. Harrison has sold the handsome gelding Last Boy to an Eastern party for $1,000. He recently bought him for $400.

C. J. Hamlin will this year attempt to lower the team record for pacers with Robert J. and Bright Regent, and with Fantasy and Princess Royal, daughters of Chimes, he will attempt to lower the trotting record for teams now held by Bell Hamlin and Globus.

Mr. Aldry, of Bonnoues, France, who has paid a number of visits to Kentucky and who has bought several highly bred trotting horses from the Bluegrass breeders, is in the city looking for horses. Mr. Aldry has the money and owners of good horses will get it. He is a most excellent judge of horses and nothing but the best will please his taste.

In New York twenty-one head of park horses were sold at auction for $12,100, and average of $575. X Ray, an eight-year-old gelding by Masterlode sold for $1,000; the pair, Richelle by Alvan Wilkes and Voluntion by Astor brought $1,425; Autograph by Motor and Photograph by Howard Wilkes, sold for $1,250. Little Duke b., Garnet Wilkes and Holly by Masterlode brought $1,600.

The trotting record for Australia was lowered at Melbourne on March 5, when the bay gelding Fritz trotted his third heat of a race distancing all his competitors in 2:14 1/5. The first two heats were finished in 2:19 and 2:16 1/5. As the record stands it is the fastest ever made by a trotter or any track outside of America. Fritz is a six-year-old gelding by Van Cleve who is by Harold, out of Vassar by Belmont. The dam of Fritz was Fruition by Berlin, second dam Woodburn Maid by Sterling, son of Merchant.

It is authoritatively stated that the great two-year-old of last season, Tommy Britton 2:15 will not be seen on the turf this year, but instead make a season in the stud. The son of Liberty Bell and Keepsake is reported to be in magnificent condition, but his long-headed young owner is not thinking of putting his three-year-old up against the best performers, and will save him for the 2:16 class in his four-year-old form, meanwhile permitting him to serve fifteen or twenty mares. This will be good news to the owners of promising three-year-olds, who want to enter them in early closing stakes and purse, and yet have their dreams disturbed by visions of Tommy Britton.

Free Advice to Horse Owners

If your horse groans when urinating and the urine is thick and "milky" lose no time in feeding a package of Dr. Daniel's Horse Balsomator. It regulates the stomach and kidneys, increases the weight 40 to 75 pounds in four weeks, and the horse acts and drives "like as silk." Dr. Daniels' Renovator costs fifty cents (more than some other so-called condition powders). Feed it and you will assert that it is cheaper, because it does what is claimed. Put up in doses. Improve the Mind.

There are five methods of improving the mind, viz.: observation, reading, instruction by lectures, conversation and its service is unexcelled. Any rational mind can grasp all of these methods; but observation comes first, because through this method we obtain our first intellectual development. It is necessary that all five of these methods should be observed in order to constitute a well developed mind, but I believe study and reading are the most essential of the five.

But it is according to the manner in which we read or study whether we learn or not. When we read we should not skim over the surface, nor have our minds absorbed in some trifling thought, but should read unprejudiced, and try to get the full meaning advanced by the author, thereby inhibiting all the thought that the work contains. When we read we should have our minds unbiased and free from all bias and prejudice. If the title or preface of the book cause you to cavil, or if you are inclined to be captious, you should, by all means, read that book, because it is in opposition to your belief, as you may be mistaken, for man is fallible; and by studying a work adverse to your sentiments you may be directed to the way of truth, unless you permit your obliquity to get the upper hand of your common sense.

Another reason one should catch the thought conveyed by the author is because books cannot speak in answer to interrogatives, and if the author does not possess the power of simple explanation, you must study out the idea intended else be left in incomprehensible doubt and ignorance. A reader can easily become a censor, and it is right that one should criticize, for as it is said, no man is infallible. Criticism and reflections may cause us to bring light things which we could not otherwise understand; and may also enable us to elongate and penetrate deeper into the subject than the author. If you read a book and lay it aside without reflecting upon it will not be benefited by reading. After having read a book, you should read it again, taking each chapter separately. Meditate and reflect as deeply as your knowledge will permit. You will thereby get the full meaning of the author, at the same time improving the memory and add much to your storehouse of knowledge.

I shall, in concise manner, tell what sorts of books are most didactical and best suited to improve the mind. One person cannot always select reading matter for another; for that which suits the intellectual government of one may not suit the taste of another; for some have fed their minds on trashy literature until they cannot digest and imbibe solid diet. A mind brought up in such a manner cannot recommend a book that will nourish a mind that has been fed on fine language. Most books (novels excluded) contain more or less solid food; but the study of the sciences, and histories, archaic powers are more elevating than any I have perused. Complications and encyclopedias furnish us with much valuable information, but if one tends to make a specialty of a certain art, or branch of science, he should devote most of his reading hours to the art or science which is being studied; but I advise such learners (though a learner myself) to give other branches of study some thought in order to keep the mind balanced.

But dear readers, abstain from the very thought of excessive novel reading. Some novels have bright and fiery sentences, but after all they contain nothing but ribaldry chaff. Don't be misled by trying to follow in the footsteps of the assumed chief character which appears in novels to burn many a bright mind forever.—Ex.

The Bicycle an Instrument of Torture.

The late Sultan of Morocco used bicycles as instruments of torture for any of the ladies of his harem who had had the misfortune to offend him. The unfortunate women were placed on the machines and compelled to ride round a marked track in the palace gardens. Naturally, they fell repeatedly to the ground, their sudden decaut causing the Sultan the greatest amusement. When they had rolled in the dust a dozen times the punishment was complete.

Prevention of Writer's Cramp.

No one will suffer from writer's cramp who will exhibit sufficient courage to ignore the established methods of holding the pen or pencil, and instead of using the two front fingers and thumb, place the pen between the first and second fingers, and use the third and fourth for a rest. It is most convenient to a back-handed or upright hand in this way, but with a little practice almost any kind of style can be adopted. The intense strain on the muscles of the first two fingers and the sympathetic nerves in the hand and arm is thus removed.

Quick-repair tubes in old hose tires, make them better than new. JOHN W. MILLER.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Sales on our market for the week closed almost to 3530 hds. with receipts for the same period 1354 hds. Sales on our market since January 1, amount to 67,495 hds. Sales of the crop of 1895 on our market to this date amount to 64,066 hds.

We have had another week of decidedly light receipts and an increase cannot be hoped for until we have more favorable weather conditions. Much the largest percentage of the offerings of burley tobacco this week have been in very soft order; prices for such are very low. The market for all grades in good condition, is about as it has been for some time past, with possibly a little better feeling for the color types. From this time forward parties should be very particular as to the order of their tobacco.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco 1895 crop.

Trash. (Dark or damaged tobacco)	$0.75 to $1.50.
Common color trash, $2.00 to $4.00
Medium to good color trash, $4.00 to $6.00.
Common lugs, not color, $2.00 to $4.00.
Common color lugs, $4.50 to $7.00.
Medium to good color lugs, $7.00 to $9.00.
Common to medium leaf $5.00 to $8.00.
Medium leaf, $8.00 to $15.00.
Good to fine leaf, $15 to $18.
Select wrapper leaf, $18 to $22.00.

The above quotations are not applicable to green and frosted crops.

The man with a weight on his leg can't hope to win in the race. A man with a weight on his health can't expect to compete in life and business with those who are not handicapped. If his brain is heavy and his blood sluggish, because of constipation, he will not succeed in doing anything very well. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all sickness. Symptoms of it are listlessness, listlessness, poor appetite, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, biliousness and lassitude. Constipation can be cured easily and certainly by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are not at all violent in their action and yet they are more certain than many medicines which are so strong that they put the system all out of order. The great advantage of "Pleasant Pellets" is that they cure permanently.
